Comfort and Bliss or Pain and Agony -special notice.

CHARLES PRESTON, of this city, has received letters patent for a new kind

THE only place in the city where you can purchase a Steinway Piano is at Hamilton & Harding's.

Among the arrivals in Philadelphia last Tuesday, as published in the Fress, we notice the names of Messrs, Joseph Bell, J. McGuire, F. C. Myers and lady, of this city.

FINISHED.-The United Presbyterian Church has been completed and is now being furnished. We understand that it will be opened for public service on next Sabbath. The seats will be free here, yesterday, and the stage was reon that day.

HELD TO BAIL.-Patrick Manny, of Richland township, was brought before Pittsburgh was twelve feet, and still Judge Johnston, yesterday, charged with destroying a fence, the property of that we could hear of, was the Iron-sides with a large tow of iron ore. She amination was not concluded, and his appearance to morrow, when the case will be further investigated.

GAVE HIMSELF UP.-Last ovening, ties in that city. James Sweeney, who was concerned in the shooting affray at the Atlantic Saloon a week or two since, gave himself up. No complaint had been made against him, but he chose this course in order to have the matter investigated. Judge Johnston required him to give bond for his appearance in the sum of two thousand dollars.

WASHINGTON HALL.-The audience at Washington Hall, last evening, enjoyed a rare entertainment in the supe- only packet leaving here that evening rior manner in which Diavalo and the for that city and all way points. Having Lottery Ticket were rendered by Mrs. Ten first class in every particular, and our Sefton's Company. To-night, Ten Nights in a Bar-room and Dick Turpin, will be played. To morrow after-pin, will be played. To morrow afternoon a grand fimity matinee will be held. The admission has been put at a mere nominal sum, and the bill is an attractive one.

Fine Improvement.—Workmen were yesterday engaged in tearing down a brick house, the second buildidg south of the residence of Mr. Auton Reymann, on Market street, between Quinoy and John. We were told that Mr.
R. designs to erect a handsome residence on the site.

We learn that when the contemplated

From our latest exchanges we take the following: The Hays, with Dan Rice's Circus on board, is on its way up the Ohio, exhibiting at all important towns. Dan insist that it was his mules which President Grant rode when a boy, although the writer hereof remembers very distinctly that, several years ister than the period referred to,
Dan Rice was still dancing 'hoe-downs'
on street corners in Pittsburgh for the diffication of Jake Horsley, Dutch Clark, (the Young American Samson,) Cleicken' Tom Davis, 'Nigger' Tom Davis, (the latter two were white natives of Pittsburgh, but nick-named as

We learn that when the contemplated building is completed, Mr. R. will have the house he now occupies removed, and extend his brewery up to the line of Market street. When finished these buildings will improve the appearance of that neighborhood.

HUMBOLDT CENTENNIAL .- The Germans of Martinsburg have made ar rangements to celebrate the hundredth birthday of Baron Humboldt. Governor Stevenson has been invited to be present.

Preparations are in active progress there to celebrate the same day. The several German societies are at the head of the movement, and the affair promises to be a grand success. They have extended invitations to their American brethren to participate, and should the weather be propitions, we shall probably be treated to one of the finest displays ever witnessed in this city. Addresses in the German and English languages will be delivered. The programme will be appropriately an anold boatmansay justerday that, if General Wetzel's dism failted to improve navigation, it would be delivered. have extended invitations to their due time.
